CORNERSTONE

Is Laid In The Presence of a Vast Crowd Of Kentuckians.

AND FORMER REIDENTS

Ceremony of Laying Corner Stone Was Performed to strains of Old Ky. Home

Frankfort, Ky., June 16.—In the presence of a vast crowd of Kentuckians and former residents of the commonwealth here to attend the Homecoming, Governor Beckham this afternoon signaled that the corner stone of the new Kentucky capitol be swung into place and deposited therein a copper box containing the records of state and sealed up the opening with a silver and ebony trowel.

The ceremony was performed to the strains of "My Old Kentucky Home." On the stand with Governor Beckham, during the ceremonies were former Governor Preston H. Leslie, now of Montana; former United States Senator William Lindsay, of New York, United States Senator J. B. McCreary, former executive of the state, former Governor Thomas Crittenden, of Missouri, and ex-Kentuckians and officials of the state of Kentucky.

The ceremony of laying the corner stone was the greatest event in the history of the city of Frankfort, as it settled forever the question of the capital removal, which was agitated before the general assembly for half a century.

Senator Lindsay was the orator of the day. He referred to his public life as a citizen of Kentucky and its representation of the national capital, and declared today was indeed a homecoming to him. He expressed the gratification that Frankfort, which he always called his home, though residing in the East for a number of years, and Kentucky, that their history and traditions are to remain united in the future as in the past.

He reviewed the part Kentuckians have played in history, not only of their own state, but of the nation.

Secretary of State McChesney reviewed the capitols of Kentucky. There has been nine capitols since it entered the sisterhood of states.

In laying the corner stone Governor Beckham spoke briefly.

CAPT. KIDD

Will Lecture On Jewish History at Pilot Rock.

Capt. Wm. Kidd, a Confederate veteran of the 24th Va. Cavalry, is in the city on his return from the New Orleans reunion, and in the event he can make proper arrangements, expects to deliver two lectures at Pilot Rock next Sunday. He claims to be the only "Gentile Jew" evangelist in the world. His lectures will be a discussion of the history of the Jewish religion and of all orthodox churches. Further announcement will be made.

LIVED CENTURY.

Probably Oldest Man of His Section Passes Away.

James Jones, who resided just over the Trigg county line, in Stewart county, Tenn., died Friday. He was well known in this city and was a man of family. He was probably the oldest man of that section, having celebrated his 99th birthday on March 11 last. Mr. Jones had been in excellent health until a few weeks ago.

Services at C. P. Church.

Rev. Geo. L. Johnson, of Erin, Tenn., will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church to-morrow night. The members of the congregation are urged to be present.

ANNUAL MEETING

Kentucky Pharmacists Will Meet at Cerulean
Today.

THREE DAYS' SESSION.

A Fine Program Arranged and a Large Attendance
Is Expected.

Beginning today and lasting through Thursday, the 29th annual meeting of Kentucky Pharmacists will be held at Cerulean Springs. This is the first meeting held in Western Kentucky for several years and the attendance is expected to be unusually large, not only on account of the important business to be considered by the men who fill prescriptions for the people, but on account of the entertainment to be furnished by Capt. Pool, the popular host of the Cerulean Springs hotel. The reputation of the hotel will be fully sustained as no pains or expense will be spared to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable in the history of the association.

The program, as arranged by phar-

CHARLES HARRIS NASH, JR., LOCAL SECRETARY.

Mr. Nash is one of the most popular young druggists in Kentucky, and is always a conspicuous figure at the meetings of the Association, holding several positions of honor and trust.

macists Jas. W. Moore, Chas. Nash and O. Small, is one that cannot fail to interest everyone. Fourteen prizes are offered for best papers read on different subjects, one of which is to be given to the lady who reads the best paper on the use of cosmetics, would you marry again, or the simple life versus society. Either subject can be chosen, and the prize offered is a cut glass punch bowl. The first day's program provides for contests in ten pins, quotations, pictorial and odor contests, progressive euchre quoit pitching rifle shooting, conundrum and hair raising contests. Wednesday's program embraces progressive euchre, two hen races and one pig race, football kicking, nail driving, barrel race, ball throwing, color contest, the official program. Eighty-one wholesale firms have donated different articles to be given to successful contestants, while a dozen or more firms have made cash donations to help meet the expenses of the meeting.

Mr. Chas. H. Nash, the secretary, has been working hard to make the 29th annual meeting the best that has ever been held. With the assistance of the two other gentlemen on the committee of entertainment he has arranged for something to be going on all the time during the three days of the meeting. The music will be furnished by the band engaged for the summer by Capt. Pool.

11 ARRESTS

For Various Offenses, Made Saturday and Sunday

Business was unusually lively at police headquarters Saturday and Sunday. Violators of the law indulged in almost every crime in the calendar under the head of misdemeanors. There were three for disorderly conduct, 2 for drunkenness, 3 for street walking, 1 breach of the peace 1 selling liquor without license and 1 for walking with the prostitute. Should the penalty for these 11 offenses be inflicted a large sum will go into the city treasury.

FLOWER BEDS

Planted Around the Baptist Church Building.

The Baptist church has beautified the plats about the church building by planting four pretty flower beds of geraniums, cannas, colenis and heliotropes. The work was done by T. B. Metcalfe, the florist. The beds are tastefully arranged and tempted thieves to such an extent that some of the plants were pulled up and taken away the first night they were put out.

S. S. Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Sunday School of the First Presbyterian church will be held at Edward's Mill next Thursday.
